Stay: Hilton Garden Inn Kaua'i Waleua Bay

Travel Tips from Suzi @ Nothing Ventured

- The August "Dry" Side: August is peak summer. While Kaua'i is famous for rain, the South and West sides will be sunny and hot. Perfect for your car rental explorations!
- The Na Pali Rule: You cannot drive to the Na Pali coast. You must see it by boat or helicopter. I recommend booking a morning snorkel boat for the best light and calmer seas.
- Park Reservations: If you plan to visit Ha'ena State Park (North Shore), you must book your parking/entry voucher exactly 30 days in advance. They sell out in minutes!
- Go Local: Stop at the roadside "Sunshine Markets" for fresh lychee and mango, August is prime fruit season.

Day 1: The Grand Canyon & South Shore Sands

- Morning: The Grand Canyon of the Pacific
 - 8:30 AM: Drive West to Waimea Canyon State Park. The red dirt against the lush green cliffs is mind-blowing. Stop at the Waimea Canyon Lookout and then continue to Puu Hinahina Lookout.
 - The Hike: Continue to the end of the road to Koke'e State Park for the Kalepa Ridge Trail. It's an unofficial-feeling path that offers the most breathtaking, narrow-ridge views of the Na Pali coast from above.
- Lunch: Shrimp & Shave Ice
 - Head back down the mountain to Waimea Town. Grab a plate of garlic shrimp from the famous Shrimp Station and follow it up with a mountain of shave ice from JoJo's.
- Afternoon: Spouting Horn & Secret Coves
 - Drive to the South Shore to see Spouting Horn, a blowhole that shoots sea water high into the air.
 - Relax: Head to Poipu Beach Park. It's the best spot to see Hawaiian Monk Seals basking on the sand.
- Evening: Sunset & Sushi
 - 6:00 PM: Grab a cocktail at The Beach House in Lawai for the best sunset view on the island.
 - Dinner: Head back toward Wailua (near your hotel) and eat at Sleeping Giant Grill or Pono Market for authentic Poke bowls that the locals swear by.

Day 2: North Shore Magic & Tropical Rivers

- Morning: Waterfalls & River Vibes
 - 9:00 AM: Since you are staying right there, start at Wailua Falls (the "Fantasy Island" waterfall). It's a drive-up lookout, so no hiking required for this epic photo.
 - Adventure: Rent a double kayak and paddle up the Wailua River to the trailhead for Secret Falls (Uluwehi Falls). It's a 20-minute paddle and a 30-minute hike through the jungle to a 100ft waterfall you can swim in.
- Lunch: Food Truck Heaven
 - Drive North to Hanalei Town. This is the quintessential surf town. Grab lunch at the Hanalei Taro & Juice Co. truck or Pat's Taqueria parked near the pier.
- Afternoon: Hanalei Bay & Tropical Gardens
 - Spend your afternoon at Hanalei Bay. Walk to the end of the historic pier and look back at the mountains, this is the most "Instagrammable" spot on the island.
 - Quick Stop: On the way back, stop at the Kilauea Lighthouse. In August, you'll see thousands of nesting seabirds and potentially dolphins leaping in the distance.
- Evening: Farewell Mai Tais
 - 6:30 PM: Celebrate your final night with dinner at Bar Acuda in Hanalei for tapas-style dining, or head back to the hotel area for Smith's Tropical Paradise Luau if you want the full traditional Hawaiian experience with fire dancing.
